Conference Highlights

Capitol Connection's A View From The Top

This symposium will highlight those leading agencies for their progress in diversifying contracting opportunities in state government with minority and women owned businesses. A View From The Top will be a riveting commentary from three top department directors with forward-thinking philosophies and track records of excellence on their successes and how minority and women business purchasing are a strategic fit for their agency.

Capitol Connection's Business-To-Business Forum

This forum will provide local mainstream and major companies interested in doing business with certified minority and women business enterprises an opportunity to forge joint ventures, strategic alliance and sub-contracting arrangements. The power of small minority and women business growth is often times through partnerships. Plan to attend this highly anticipated forum for additional marketing exposure from 11 am until 12 noon.

Capitol Connection's Buyer/Supplier Session

This session has been revised for maximum MBE/WBE exposure. It is designed to provide agencies interested in doing business with certified minority and women business enterprises an opportunity to meet and discuss current and future contractual needs. There is limited booth space available for the first 25 MBE/WBE registrants to market products and services and discuss potential business opportunities with state procurement officers and administrators.

On-Line

Bidding Registration

MBEs and WBEs, register your business to "bid on-line!"

Procurement staff will be available to assist you with "bid registration" during Capitol Connection 2004.

To register, please have available: your SSN or Federal ID number, address, and all appropriate telephone numbers, and a list of services and/or products that accurately represent your business.
